Privacy notice for the Trust workforce

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust and its schools use any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our Trust.

We, ACES Academies Trust are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. For the purposes of this notice, data protection law refers to UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act (2018).

Our data protection officer is The ICT Service (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those we employ, or otherwise engage, to work at our Trust and its schools. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the Trust's use of your data.

Our basis for using Special Category data:

- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest.
